

Mayor Engaging Communities on IDP and Budget for 2013/2014

The Ephraim Mogale Local Municipality Mayor will engage communities in a consultative process of adopting the Integrated Development Plan (IDP) that informs the Budget for the financial year 2013/2014.

Mayor, Cllr Yvonne Mmakola will drive the consultative process with the communities with the sole aim of accounting for the past financial year and prioritizing the project that will be allocated for the next financial year. When ask about the process, Hon. Mayor Mmakola alluded by reminding everyone that the consultation process is a legislative requirement that need to be undertaken. Despite all the engagement with communities at various forums, the municipality is obliged to consult and account to the communities on yearly basis on how the budget was used and the plan for the new budget

The program is as follows:
